

It's not easy to start a business! Read and research the life and work of an entrepreneur, then answer the questions about him or her below.

Part 1 Steve Jobs.

What innovations or business did this entrepreneur contribute to the world?

Steve Jobs idea was indeed Apple.

Who or what inspired this person to become an entrepreneur?

Steve Jobs was inspired by Edwin Land, who invented Polaroid Corporation.

When and how did this person start their company?

The apple company started on April 1, 1976. Steve Jobs started Apple in his parent garage, along side his partner Woznik.

What challenges and obstacles did this person face along the way?

The his birth parents not wanting him struggling with career and being fired from his own company. He with his partner Woznik started his company.

Part 2

In the space below, take notes on other entrepreneurs that your classmates researched and presented.

Andrew Carnegie had to gain knowledge for his idea.
Mark Cuban had to work

Compare the entrepreneurs' stories. What common traits or themes do you see?

They all started with own business.
They had challenges and obstacles.